

Are Small Opportunities Worthwhile?
Action Steps

As you read in the article, there are no small opportunities. Look around you. Where can you see opportunities today that you might not have seen yesterday?

1. Be of service.

How can you be of service today? Write down your ideas here.

2. Write a letter.

There are at least three people who could use a thank you note from you right now. Who are they? Write them down here.

3. Write three thank you notes and send them in the mail today.

Remember, there are no small opportunities!